LIST OF ITEMS TO BE SEIZED

1. The items to be seized are evidence, contraband, fruits, or instrumentalities of violations Title 18, United States Code, Sections 2252A(a)(2) and 2252A(a)(5)(B), which make it a crime to knowingly distribute, receive and possess child pornography through the use of a means and facility of interstate or foreign commerce including, but not limited to, the Internet consisting of:
 - a. lists of customers, contacts, and related identifying information for sources of child pornography;
 - b. any information related to sources or methods of obtaining child pornography (including names, contact information, websites or addresses, any other identifying information, and any software or hardware used to create, transmit, possess, or secure files) or evidence of access to children;
 - c. any information or evidence, including videos or images, of child pornography as defined in 18 U.S.C § 2256;
 - d. information, correspondence, records, documents or other materials constituting evidence of or pertaining to child pornography, child erotica, or access to children; or constituting evidence of or pertaining to the production, possession, receipt, distribution, accessing, or transmission through interstate or foreign commerce of child pornography, child erotica, or visual depictions of minors engaged in sexually explicit conduct; or constituting evidence of or pertaining to an interest in child pornography or sexual activity with children.

2. Evidence of user attribution showing who used or owned the items at the time the things described in this warrant were created, edited, or deleted, including but not limited to logs, phonebooks, saved usernames and passwords, documents, and browsing history;

3. Records evidencing the use of the Internet or programs, software, or methods to facilitate the acquisition of child pornography including:

- a. records of Internet Protocol addresses used;
- b. records of Internet activity, including firewall logs, caches, browser history and cookies, “bookmarked” or “favorite” web pages, search terms that the user entered into any Internet search engine, and records of user-typed web addresses.

4. As used above, the terms “records” and “information” include all of the foregoing items of evidence in whatever form and by whatever means they may have been created or stored, including any form of computer or electronic storage

(such as flash memory or other media that can store data) and any photographic form.

5. The term “computer” includes all types of electronic, magnetic, optical, electrochemical, or other high-speed data processing devices performing logical, arithmetic, or storage functions, including desktop computers, notebook computers, mobile phones, tablets, server computers, and network hardware.

6. The term “storage medium” includes any physical object upon which computer data can be recorded. Examples include hard disks, RAM, floppy disks, flash memory, CD-ROMs, and other magnetic or optical media.
